Be sure to give the full and complete name of the attorney you are complaining about. Also, provide his address and telephone number. If you wish to complain about more than one attorney, use a separate form for each attorney. If any of the blank spaces do not apply to your case, write N/A (Not Applicable). Please note #9 on the form and answer if known. If you do not know, state “Unknown.”

On a separate sheet of paper, tell us about your complaint against the attorney. We also need to know the background of your case:

- What type of case is it?
- When did you hire the attorney?

- When did you meet the attorney?
- What was your agreement?
- Was the agreement verbal or in writing?
- Other pertinent information?
- Tell us in your own words what has happened so far in this case.

Some Things You Should Know

Below is a list of what the State Bar can and cannot do when it considers a complaint against an attorney:

- The law limits the authority of the State Bar. It cannot act as your lawyer. For example, it cannot give you legal advice or any other legal services, so it cannot advise you what your rights are in a given situation or what you should do.

- The State Bar cannot give you the name of a particular attorney to help you. If you do not have an attorney and wish to hire one, contact a Lawyer Referral Service in your area. The State Bar pamphlet “How Can I Find & Hire the Right Lawyer?” is available on the State Bar’s Web site, www.calbar.ca.gov (go to Consumer Pamphlets).

- The State Bar cannot advise or otherwise help you in any matters connected with your complaint or in any other dispute in which you may be involved. For example, it cannot decide whether an attorney’s particular fee is reasonable. Some local Bar Associations have a Fee Arbitration Committee. The State Bar’s Fee Arbitration program is available should your local bar association not provide fee arbitration.

- The State Bar is not a court that can provide civil remedies to complainants.

- If the State Bar files charges in the State Bar Court and obtains an order of discipline, additional remedies such as restitution also may be ordered.

- The State Bar can discipline or recommend that an attorney be disciplined only for a violation of the State Bar Act or the Rules of Professional Conduct.
