

VENTURA COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION PROBATE & ESTATE PLANNING SECTION

Presents

BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION PITFALLS AND HOW TO AVOID THEM

Ruth Morrow is a partner at Alexander, Clayton, Morrow & Wilson. Her practice focuses on Estate Planning, Family Law and Business. Ms. Morrow has acted as a Judge Pro Tem on Probate cases at the Ventura Superior Court. Ms. Morrow has also served as the president of the East County Bar Association and currently sits as an executive member of the Probate and Estate Planning committee.

Join us for a discussion of the interplay between beneficiary designation and the family law automatic restraining orders. Ms. Morrow will also discuss conservatorship proceedings where assets needed for the conservatee's care are outside the conservatorship and the beneficiaries are different than those under the conservatorship estate.
