

LRIS PERCENTAGE FEE PROGRAM

Membership Dues

Each panelist will continue to pay a quarterly membership fee of $50.00, non-members pay $75.00. Each additional panel $25.00 (6 panels maximum).

Percentage Fees

For all cases referred after January 1, 2014, unless the referral is a Modest Means Referral, each member shall pay to the Lawyer Referral Service a forwarding fee of 10% of any and all fees collected by the member in connection with all clients referred by the Service to such member, due and payable at the conclusion of a case. These fees shall include, without limitation, fees (including contingency fees):

- Generated on the referred case by any lawyer other than the Member to which the referral was initially made whether or not the Member is still active on the case; and
- Generated on the referred case after the Member in question ceases, whether temporarily or permanently, to be a Member of the Service.

Applicable to Panels:

- Malpractice Law (already in effect)
- Torts Plaintiff (already in effect)
- Administrative Law
- Consumer Law
- Family Law
- Labor Law
- Real Property

State Bar Lawyer Referral
Percentage Fee Program

Collection of Client Referral Fee:

- Panel Members shall continue to collect $35 for Labor and Consumer referrals.
- LRIS Staff will collect $35 referral fee for Family Law and Real Property referrals.
- Panels exempted from collecting the Client Referral Fee: Malpractice Law and Torts Plaintiff.

The Lawyer Referral & Information Service Program (LRIS) is a State Bar certified (#0059) and ABA approved program, in operation by the bar since 1959.

